

So, you want your dog to be famous - Mae Linh Fatum

We've all seen the meteoric rise of Grumpy Cat and have thought about getting a cat to cash in on that sweet internet gold. However, cats are totally not your bag so you think, I'll get a dog! But what type of dog should you get? Luckily @WeRateDogs is here to help! @WeRateDogs rates dogs on overall awesomeness and can help us predict what we need in our future dog to become the next meme!

More likes = more retweets

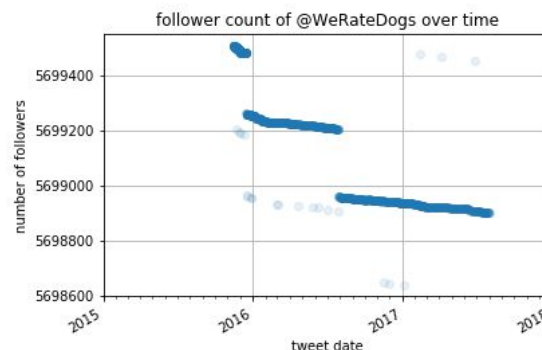

It isn't enough to just put a picture of your dog out there. It needs to get likes and more importantly, it needs to get retweeted. The more it is retweeted the more people see your dog which means the more famous your dog will get!

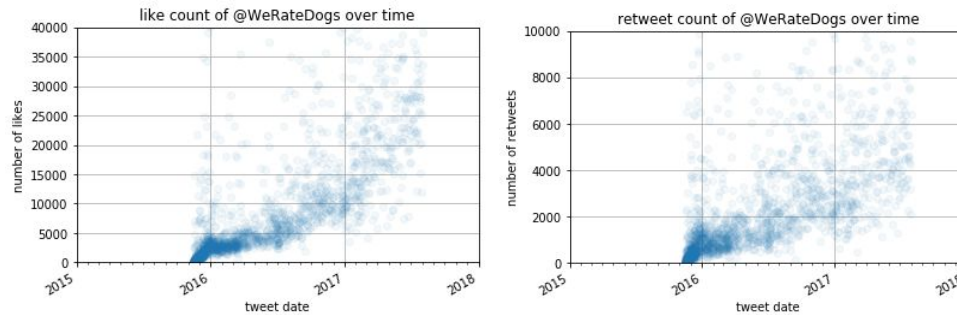

It makes sense, the more likes a tweet gets, the more likely the tweet will be retweeted. As we can see from the @WeRateDogs twitter data, the more likes a tweet received, the more likely it will be retweeted. In fact, about 30% of likes turn into retweets.

Does it matter how many followers I have?

While having a lot of followers doesn't necessarily guarantee having a lot of likes and retweets, it does guarantee that at least that many people are seeing your pupper's adorable face. Don't get discouraged if your follower count decreases sometimes, in fact @WeRateDogs lost followers overtime, but their number of likes and retweets increased overtime.

As you can see, even though @WeRateDogs lost followers overtime, they actually increased the number of likes and retweets. So stick with it!

What type of dog gets the most likes?

Do get a Labrador retriever. Don't get a Chihuahua. Think of names like Lilly, Earl, Stephan, Duddles, Kenneth, Aja, Jamesy, Zoey, Bo, or Canela. Avoid names like Scout. A name like Walter could go either way. Consider getting a doggo, but really any stage is good.

What type of dog gets the most retweets?

Do get a Golden or Labrador retriever. Don't get a Chesapeake Bay retriever or German Shepard. Think of names like Buddy, Duddles, Hurley, Stephan, Zoey, Jamesy, Sunny, Bo, Kenneth. Avoid names like Daryl, Walter, Kallie, Bloo, Keet, Christopher, Scout. Having a doggo is a pretty safe retweet bet.

TL:DR

Beyond taking really great photos, your future famous dog should be a Labrador Retriever doggo named Stephan, Duddles, Kenneth, Jamesy, Zoey, or Bo. Focus on getting your dog out there to as many people as possible, but don't stress if you lose followers. Go get 'em tiger!
